By Nell Blair

The Vocational Information Conference, originated primarily for the benefit of freshman and sophomore women students and sponsored by the dean of women's office and the House President's Council, will be held on campus April 5-7.

The conference, held for the past four years in conjunction with the Job Conference, is being held as a separate event this year to further aid the students in their choice of a career and to give them the latest authoritative information in vocational fields.

Washington Woman To Speak
Miss Frieda S. Miller, director of the women's bureau, U. S. Department of Labor in Washington, will be the principal speaker at the conference. Seventeen other persons have been scheduled to speak during the three day meeting.

Miss Miller will address a special convocation opening the conference at 4 p.m. April 5 in Memorial Hall. Her topic will be "Women of the World Today."

Vocational displays will be exhibited in the departments participating in the conference. The theme will be "Jobs? Information, Please." Department heads and professors will hold individual conferences with the students from April 5-12.

Discussion groups will also be held from 4-6 p.m. in the SUB.

Purpose To Inform

The main purpose will be to inform the students of the training possibilities at the University in the fields which are represented in the conference.

The fields to be discussed are public health, elementary education, journalism, medical technology, social work, secretarial, personnel, music, physical education, art and architecture, nursing education, religious education, secondary education, home economics, library science, speech therapy, and radio.

Guignol Selects Cast For Play By Hart, Kaufman

A complete cast has been selected for the coming Guignol production, "George Washington Slept Here," a comedy by Moss Hart and George Kaufman. A tentative opening date of May 2 has been set, according to Wallace Briggs, director.

The play is built around the purchase of a farm house in Connecticut by Newton and Annabelle Fuller, sophisticated New Yorkers. It is a very special house, however, since George Washington once "slept there." Neither lead has ever lived on a farm and their adventures make up the comedy hit.

The cast is as follows:

Wildcats To Defend NCAA Title In Seattle

By Dudley Saunders

Kentucky's offensive masters vie with Oklahoma A. & M.'s defensive masters tomorrow night in Seattle for the NCAA basketball championship.

The Wildcats will be after their second consecutive NCAA title and their third national championship in four years. Hank Iba's Western Kentucky Wildcats are seeking their third NCAA crown. They won in 1945 and 1946.

This season the Wildcats have won 32 and lost two, compared to A. & M.'s 23-4 record.

Tomorrow night's encounter will be only the third meeting in the history of the two schools. Kentucky won the initial meeting in the consolation game of the 1944 NIT, 45-29. Bob Kurland and Floyd Burdette, former Murray star and present Alabama coach, were the Aggie stars, and Bob Brannum, Jack Tingle and Jack Parkinson were the Kentucky standouts in those days.

The Aggies won the second meeting, 37-31, in the 1946 Sugar Bowl. Most of Kentucky's present crew was around then, as were several of this year's Aggie team.

Thus, the championship clash will (Continued on Page Seven)

Robert Coffin, Bowdoin Poet, To Speak Here

Robert Peter Tristram Coffin, poet in residence at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine, will be the sixth visiting writer to appear at UK in the University's literary-dramatic series.

His first lecture, "The Substance of Poetry," will be given Tuesday in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. He will speak Wednesday at the University Training School Auditorium at 8 p.m. and Thursday in Guignol Theater at 3 p.m.

Coffin is well known throughout the United States as a poet, author, illustrator, and teacher. He has taught at Bowdoin and Wells College for over two decades and has lectured at many other colleges and universities.

He was selected as a Rhodes Scholar before World War I and won the Pulitzer Prize in Poetry in 1938. He was elected to the National Institute of Arts and Letters in 1945.

Coffin is the author of 35 books covering a range of subjects from the life of Archbishop Laud to a volume of ballads. His revised and enlarged "Collected Poems" is on sale at the Campus Bookstore.

Illustrates Own Books

He also illustrates his own books and is bringing to Lexington the manuscript of a new volume with drawings. Dr. Herman E. Spivey, head of the English department, relates having seen Coffin's sketches and caricatures.

Coffin is especially noted for his depiction of life in Maine, his home state. Prof. Grant C. Knight, professor of American literature, describes Coffin's poetry as being "bed-lad-like in form, spirit and matter, although his outlook is on the whole optimistic and lacking in the irony of another poet of Maine life, Edwin Arlington Robinson."

"Affection For Common Man"
Dr. Knight also said that Coffin has a "rather confident and appreciative view of American democracy and an affection for the common man."

Dr. Spivey adds that Coffin "is one of the jolliest and liveliest poets I have ever heard and is especially well acquainted with college life because of his many college affiliations."

Following his lecture Tuesday the English department will give a reception in his honor in the Home Economics Building. The lectures and the reception will be open to the public.

Tau Beta Pi Pledges Tapped (Gently) In Hammer Ceremony

By Rosemary Hilling

The halls of Anderson Hall resounded with the penetrating bong of the Tau Beta Pi gong Monday. The mystery? Simply that the Alpha chapter of Kentucky Tau Beta Pi association, honorary engineering fraternity, has tapped forty pledges this week.

The tapping ceremony was the center of interest throughout the college. Active members of Tau Beta Pi, clad in cap and gown, invaded engineering classrooms in search of their pledges. When the select one was discovered he was tapped (gently) with the wooden sledge hammer carried by the active. Then he left the classroom with the active, who led him to the gong in the central study hall. The chosen pledge then "bonged the gong," and proudly wrote his name on the study hall blackboard as a Tau Beta Pi pledge.

Delta Tau Delta And Alpha Xi Delta Win First Place Awards In Annual All-Campus Sing

By Jo Davis

Delta Tau Delta was awarded the cup in the men's division of the annual All-Campus Sing for the eleventh time Wednesday night in Memorial Hall, and Alpha Xi Delta took first place in the women's division. Sigma Nu and Alpha Delta Pi were runners-up in the men's and women's divisions, respectively.

Preliminary competition was conducted Monday and Tuesday nights to determine participants in the final judging. In addition to the four groups mentioned above, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Lambda Chi Alpha were selected from the men's groups; and Delta Zeta and Chi Omega were chosen from the women's groups.

Delta Tau Delta, directed by Jack Feierabend, sang "Jonah Had a Whale of a Time in a Whale," "Delta Shelter," and "Hallelujah, Amen" (Hallelujah), to win first honors in the men's division. Alpha Xi Delta, directed by Charlotte Watson, sang "Quest," and "Blue Moon" to win the women's division.

Delts Won Last Year
Delta Tau Delta also won the men's cup last year, while Jewell Hall won the women's cup. The Jewell Hall group was eliminated Tuesday night in this year's competition.

The time limit for each group's performance was eight minutes, including getting on and off the stage. Women's organizations wore formal, while dress was optional in the male groups.

Judges Listed
Judges for the final event were Eudora South, Frankfort; George Anders, Georgetown; and Dr. Richard Warner, Berea.

The annual All-Campus Sing is sponsored jointly by Phi Beta, Phi Mu Alpha, Mortar Board, and Omicron Delta Kappa.

Participating groups in the men's division in the order of their original appearance included Phi Sigma Kappa, Kappa Alpha, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Nu, Delta Tau Delta, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Participants in the Women's division in the order of original appearance in the preliminaries Tuesday night were Delta Delta Delta, Patterson Hall, Chi Omega, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Delta Pi, Kappa Delta, Alpha Xi Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Boyd Hall, Zeta Tau Alpha, Jewell Hall, and Delta Zeta.

Big Crowds Attend

Capacity or near-capacity audiences attended the performances all three nights. Generous applause, led by contingents of the competing groups, seated in the audience, was awarded each group of selections. Competitive feeling ran high, and the announcement of each night's winners was greeted with enthusiastic cheers and screams.

A much smaller percentage of men's groups than women's groups entered the contest, but it was agreed by most of the audience that the men's groups were uniformly above average.

Ushers were members of Omicron Delta Kappa and Mortar Board.

The Sigma Nu's, runners-up in the men's division, were directed by Ted Haley. They sang "White Star of Sigma Nu," "O Bone Jesu," by Palestrina, and the French national anthem, "La Marseillaise."

Runners-up in the women's division, the Alpha Delta Pi's, sang "You'll Never Walk Alone," and "Sourwood Mountain." They were directed by Mary Montague.

Letters

Dear Editor:

Of all the disgusting things!!! I have checked up on the identity of the students who wrote the letter to you last week about "hopscootch tournaments" and find that they are seniors in journalism!

What is the University coming to when seniors in journalism indulge in such childish shenanigans?

Imagine! These two students should be worrying about their forthcoming comprehensive instead of dawdling away their time with thoughts of childish sports.

If two seniors in economics or animal husbandry or some similar course had written the letter, I would have thought nothing of it.

But that two of my colleagues should stoop so low is abominable! I recommend that the head of the journalism department give each of these students a special thesis to write before graduation so that they may occupy their minds with higher thoughts.

Disgustedly,
ANOTHER JOURNALISM SENIOR

Dear Editor:

We geology majors wish to extend an invitation to the officials of the University of Kentucky to visit the Miller Hall geology library and mineralogy laboratory any evening. We must do close work late at night with material that cannot be taken from Miller Hall. We are sure one look would convince anyone that we need better lighting.

Spend your million on a new field-house, fences, and stadium, but spend a few hundred for adequate lighting in Miller Hall too!

COUSIN WEAKEYES

Dear Editor:

The Honorable Early Gorge Apley, who wrote that cynical letter concerning the Kentuckian last week, is obviously a schmo. If only he could "fall" in the Kyian office some day when the staff is at work he could be bitterly disappointed to see that we actually do work.

In the first place, he should have enough sense to spell his name "Gorge" instead of "George" if he wants it spelled correctly in the annual.

Secondly, if he thinks all we do is drink cokes and converse, why doesn't he bring his own coke so we can have a party?

Thirdly, we were extremely short of experienced help this year, and would have welcomed any suggestions in order to publish a bigger and better Kentuckian.

Fourthly, the annual has been at the printers for a month, and we are thankful that we could work on the darn thing in such crowded quarters. This is for your information, Mr. Apley.

Your for a bigger and better Kyian.

Dear Editor:

The letter appearing in the Kernel last week about starting a "hopscootch" tournament here is the most stupid, outlandish, atrocious thing we've read in your paper so far. Who are these two jerks who believe that hopscootch will build up muscles and help draw straight lines? Do they suck lollipops in class, and wear pinafores and short pants?

The mental stature of these two retarded adolescents should be put to the test, and they should be placed in an institution more in keeping with their states of mind—

The 40 pledges must now go through a week of pledge training. During this time they must carry a ten pound sledge hammer with them constantly. They must also wear an 8-inch aluminum facsimile of the Tau Beta Pi "bent" or key. The sledge hammer must be wrapped with green ribbon. It is rumored that this is to honor St. Pat, the engineers' patron.

Secret initiation ceremonies will be held on March 28 in the Lafayette Hotel.

A Tau Beta Pi candidate must have a 2. standing, and be a member of the junior or senior classes. He must have "breadth of interest both inside and outside of engineering."

Jim Line, UK basketball player, had the distinction of being "tapped" by a telegram instead of a sledge hammer. He was in New York with the Wildcats playing for the NCAA tournament when tapping occurred.

The Spice Of Life

By Rubye Graham and Jobie Anderson

When we see couples spooning on the lawn in front of the SUB, we know that spring has sprung.

Speaking of spring, love is again manifesting itself in the wholesale exchange of pins, with a traffic jam both ways.

Newly pinned: Betty Morgan and Jack Whitman; Mary Odell and Eli Jackson; Charlotte Eskine and Jim Heffernan; Betty Beuchel and George Martin.

Newly unpinned: Maria Stergees and Jim Mokas; Jean Stubbs and "Cruddy" Christ.

A quibble on the list is the pinning and unpinning of Mary Ann Mosby and John Burrier.

A gentle hint: Irvin Scrivner ought to give his SAE pin to Bobby Ann Rouse.

"Cruddy" Christ is perfecting his "elevator act" for presentation at one of the Ben All vaudeville shows. He repeated it again Saturday night.

The favorite sport at the Tri Delta house is leapfrog. It must be spring! Nancy Bird has lost her head. She came to the Sigma Nu costume party as a rabbit—she and Moe Long spent the evening trying to find the head to her costume.

Charlie Fritcheff is still trying to build a bigger and better "Mouse" trap.

Howard Locke likes to remember every moment of his phone conversation with Suzanne Fitch. That wire recorder comes in handy.

At last we have an exclusive quote from Earl Sira — and of course it's about Dusty Rhodes: "So many fiddles I can't even hear my own part." What's the matter, Earl? Some people like to play second fiddle! Don't you.

John Milkovich's date Saturday night couldn't think of a thing to say except how furious she was with Mike Mills, "cause she supposedly had a date with him. Mike was escorting Barbara Stewart at the moment.

Fred Perkins held open house in Cooperstown after "The Seaboard and Blade Dance. The kids came too.

Bob Nave woke up Sunday afternoon screaming "What happened?" George Tugle was quite in character Saturday night. But why the question mark?

It seems that four KAs have parted with their pins in the last two weeks. But Frank Benton and Jolly Rogers helped balance the pinning spree by retrieving their emblems from Nancy Roberts and Mary Ann Goodson respectively. This is the third time Frank has made the exchange with Nancy.

How did a trophy from the SAE House get in the Sigma Chi living room over the weekend?

Fred Nichols finally got a girl for the Sigma Nu costume party.

Engaged: Ann Vaughn and Billy Grubbs; Charlotte Garred and Jim Aldridge.

Who keeps sending Mae Larkin candy?

Rosemary Hilling went to campus singing Monday night to hear Charlie Oberst. Maybe the Deltas will know who escorted her!

Walt Hirsch is gone again, leaving Mildred Vance at home with her knitting needles.

Miriam Gerber had so many dates Saturday night that she broke them all and stayed home.

Dave Beam and Betty Strunk make a nice couple, don't you think? It is reported that Betty Barter has "klepto" tendencies ask her about her hobby!

Jean Sherman and Wally Horine have officially broken up.

Hot tip: Place a pin on Bob Doyle in the fifth at Keeneland.

When is Ray Randolph going to break down and give the ladies a break? There's a gang of them waiting, or hasn't he heard?

Dwaine Gullett and Kate Fleming have had the spat to end all spats. How does it feel to be unpinned after two years?

What is the "Get Billy" movement in the physiology department?

Bob "Anti-trust" Holbrook is much in demand as an impromptu after-dinner speaker for banquets. Marshal McCann is quite popular at the Kappa House.

Marilyn Haley is the latest on Billy Gault's list. Marilyn is an authority on Kappa Sig, having dated practically the whole chapter. Who's next, Marilyn?

An ATO caravan was halted at the gates of the city dump last Saturday afternoon. "Influence" Robinson called the mayor and, pronto the gates were opened. Congratulations to the boys for breaking a five-year city dump record.

It's rumored that George Vandeweyden is interested in Viv Hereford. How about Priscilla, George?

Ed Fossett is the new Kappa Sig mascot. "Bunny" is fond of carrots we hear.

"Wet Ridge" Holbrook seems to have given up Marilyn Bauer these days.

Isn't it about time for Marilyn Hollingsworth to break up with Dobbie?

After a three-week trial, it seems that the Jeanne Wilson-Jim Stites affair is definitely cold.

Helen Heltley is the latest Tri Delta on Bill Usher's agenda.

Skitch Henderson seems to be the main topic of conversation for tonight, especially among the Phi Deltas and SAE's.

Lois Wilson and Herb Mills, who came attired as huss and jockey respectively, won the Sig Ep masquerade contest. Joe Hibbs and Martha Bradley were colored angels — we call it miscegenating.

Jesse Bollinger has decided that there are better things to do on Friday night than to date Sue Cooper.

There was a trail of leaves at Joyland Saturday night. Eve was forcibly ejected from the Casino as she looked for the wandering Adam. Her quotation: "I love 'em and leaf 'em!"

Bob Breeden is smitten with Anne Jennings.

Wayne Crow went to Louisville to see the high school games, but he paraded with Pete Massie's gals instead.

Earl Caudill can't seem to make up his mind between Dotty Brown and Joan Halfer.

If anyone understands the Jean Stevens-Omar Tatum case, how about an explanation?

Alfred Prewitt was seen squinting thirteen Kappas one day last week. Helen Pulliam has a gleam in her eye for Frank.

Couples at the Sig Ep party: Jo Patterson and Jack Moore; Arden Milam and Bob McDonald; Yo Coulter and Ralph Shelby.

In his autobiography, Johann Sebastian Bach admitted that all credit for his tremendous success rightfully belonged to Dizzy Gillespie.

DZ's Elect Officers PKT Pledges Elect

New officers of Delta Zeta are Nita Powers, president; Ida Manches, vice president; Nell Blair, corresponding secretary; Ruth Vest, recording secretary; Barbara Preston, historian; and Shirley Porter, rush chairman.

Band To Honor LXA

Vaughn Monroe, band leader, will salute Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity on his national radio broadcast at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

How Modern can Jazz get?

Listen to Skitch Henderson's latest waxing of "CRAZY RHYTHM"—a Capitol Recording . . . and you'll know the answer!

One of the hottest of the oldies, "Crazy Rhythm", comes back with a sock, the way Skitch and his band revive it! Skitch Henderson is great at putting a smooth-modern touch on an old favorite. And when it comes to cigarettes, Skitch has another long-time favorite—Camels! Here's how Skitch plays it: "Camels are mild and full flavored. I've smoked Camels for years."

How Mild can a cigarette be?

SMOKE CAMELS FOR 30 DAYS

M. ("Moco") Edwards, Jr., former Wildcat, who got the crowd together; Paul Keen and his two sons; Warren Ellis, Walter Mobley, Bob Salyers, and others.

Washington held a luncheon meeting Wednesday which your secretary attended and at which there were approximately 25 persons present.

Philadelphia Club Meets

New York's party was postponed from Saturday until Tuesday following the N.C.A.A. finals.

Scientist Says Southeast Stands To Benefit Most From A-Power

The Southeastern United States, which can lay a valid claim to being the birthplace of atomic energy, stands to benefit most from its development, one of the nation's outstanding nuclear scientists told a University of Kentucky audience recently.

Speaker was Dr. Alvin M. Weinberg, associate director of the Oak Ridge National Laboratory and a veteran of more than seven years experience with the Manhattan Project. He was addressing a College of Engineering convocation at Memorial Hall.

"Nuclear fission is after all primarily a source of power — of electrical kilowatts," Dr. Weinberg stated. "It is sometimes said that the best single measure of the general cultural and economic status of a country or region is the total power consumption per capita."

Means Industrialization

"In general, large power output means great industrialization. As an area becomes industrialized there is diversification of opportunity for its people. There is added an increased wealth measured by the difference in value between the raw material of the region and the manufactured product. Too, the region because of the diversity of opportunity is less sensitive to natural catastrophe such as widespread soil erosion and depletion of fertility."

Outlines Research

He outlined the research facilities of the Oak Ridge National Laboratory and stated that it, along with others of its kind, has a three-fold function: (1) to carry out research and development in those phases of atomic energy technology which require enormously expensive facilities. (2) Serve as places where a nuclear technology tradition can develop. (3) Maintain strong and broad fundamental research programs which call upon the educational and scientific resources of the region in which they lie.

The convocation was sponsored by the University student branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

National Businessmen Interview Engineers

Representatives of various national business concerns are now conducting interviews in the College of Engineering.

R. N. Hurt, of the Appalachian Electric Power Company, Roanoke, Va., and R. E. Dirks, Needie Park, Cleveland, representative of the General Electric Company, held interviews this week. Representatives of the Air Material Command, Wright Field, Dayton, also interviewed students.

These interviews give senior engineering students a chance to become better acquainted with company requirements and to obtain positions with these organizations.

Appointments for all interviews are made through E. E. Elsey, of the College of Engineering.

TIPS ON TOGS

By Link

PERFECT - - - Yep, corduroy coats are perfect for year round wear, especially for spring. No other type coat can give you so much good practical service and their popularity is still growing — Marlene has sent me some nice light weight ones that I think you'll like — take your pick of tan, maroon, rust or grey — money invested in a corduroy coat is a wise investment.

FEAR NOT - - - Don't hesitate to try out the new pastel shades in men's suits — people from one end of the country to the other are welcoming this break from the old dead, dried up colors the "lowly male" was forced to wear — now comes the commercial — speaking of pastel shades, makes me think of the new gabardine shirts we have in stock, finely tailored by Marlene in hues of yellow, blue, pink, grey, green, lime, gold, beige and maroon — another good thing is, they are washable!

RUMOR - - - and flatterer it true — I have heard some of the girls read this little bit of advertising effort now and then — so — gals if you are looking for a smart spring suit — don't forget that we have a ladies department too, and carry the very best of brands — I saw some of the new spring glad rags and feel sure your time and effort will not be wasted if you look them over.

Baseballers Bothered By Boggy Baseline

The University of Kentucky baseball team opens its season two weeks from today when the Wildcats meet the Ga. Tech Yellow Jackets in Atlanta.

Practice, officially started this week, has been pretty much of a washout so far. Wet grounds and cold weather have hampered the baseballers on American Legion Field and basketball or football drills keep pitchers and catchers out of Alumni Gym on rainy days.

Although seriously handicapped by not having an adequate place to practice, some players are still getting in daily drills.

A sophomore battery of Frank Tucci and Ray Turner has been working out for the last two months in the tobacco warehouse on Limestone Street, across from the Gymnasium. Tucci pitched batting practice last year as a freshman and showed a great deal of promise.

Pitcher Ray Mignery, who was the big man on the mound when the Cats wound up last season, started throwing last week, but is going to need two solid weeks under clear skies and a hot sun, if he's to go the route against Tech on April 3.

Other members of last year's squad who have been issued uniforms, are catchers Jay Cummins and Buddy Clegg, third baseman John Crosswhite, outfielders Bob Jatchett, Allen Hamilton and Bob Demme.

Outstanding in the limited practice this week were infielders Johnny Mayes — a good arm, a sure fielder, meets the ball squarely; Winton Taylor, a lefthanded pitcher; hurler Leo Wild; Roy Turner, and Ray Mignery.

Still not out for practice yet are last year's leading hitter and shortstop, Johnny Stough, first baseman Walt Hirsch, and pitcher Benny Zamanka, and outfielder Clayton Webb.

Coach Randy Phillips will have charge of the team until head coach Frank Moseley is relieved of his football duties, and will be able to take over.

Six Squads Enter Spiked Shoe Meet

Six high school track relay teams have accepted invitations to the Spiked Shoe Relays to be held at Stoll Field, on the night of April 30.

The six teams accepting the bids thus far are St. Xavier of Louisville; Lafayette and Henry Clay of Lexington, Frankfort High, Stanford High, and Highlands High of Fort Thomas.

More high school teams from Kentucky and possibly from southern Indiana and Ohio are expected to enter the relays, but no entries have been received yet.

The event is being sponsored by the Kentucky Spiked Shoe organization. It is composed of trackmen from the Wildcat squad. All twelve members of the Southeastern Conference are members of the Spiked Shoe Society. Efforts are being made to bring back activities of the organization and place it in a position such as it was when first founded at Columbia University in 1923.

Plans are also being made to have a fraternity meet for teams from the UK campus in conjunction with the high school relays. Tentative plans for a sorority meet have been made but nothing final has been announced as yet.

Tennis Trials Today; First Match April 15

A meeting of all tennis team hopefuls will be held on the asphalt courts behind University High School at 4 p.m. today, Coach Danny Dickerson stated.

In case of bad weather the meeting will be held in the basement of Alumni Gym at 4 p.m.

Coach Dickerson said that no practice has been held by the team yet because of bad weather and that equipment has not been obtained as yet. He added that as many persons as possible should try out for the team as all positions on the squad are wide open.

The first of nine matches of the season for the UK Wildcat team will be against Kalamazoo College, here, April 15. The first on-the-road meet for the Wildcats will be at Vanderbilt April 22.

Modern historians are dissatisfied with the theory that Genghis Khan appeared in Europe as a WYCA case worker.

Cats Show Brain, Brawn In Spring Football Practice

Not even a muddy playing field could slow Kentucky's spring football practice this week. Although forced indoors Tuesday by rain, the Cats put in a full week of heavy duty under the watchful eye of Head Coach Paul Bryant.

Wednesday Bryant took his grid-ironers outdoors for a long scrimmage that brought satisfied smiles from most of the coaches and the 100-odd spectators that lined the practice field.

Several promising sophomores saw plenty of action with what looked like the starting eleven.

Parrelli Looks Good
Babe Parrelli, the much heralded Pennsylvania quarterback, spent most of the afternoon calling signals for the first team, and from the way things looked, he'll be handling that chore a great deal of the time next fall.

Parrelli seemed cool and poised under the fire of a tough hard-charging defensive team. Observers were pleased to note that he was very adept at broken-field running, especially whenever he appeared trapped behind the line. His passes were finding their mark consistently.

It is doubtful whether Parrelli can match the graduated George Blanda's kicking ability, but it seems quite possible that he will be able to fill Blanda's passing shoes. Parrelli is already a capable runner, something that Blanda was weakest.

Blanda Goes Pro
Blanda, incidentally, signed this week to play with the professional Chicago Bears.

Halfback Shorty Jamerson, fighting Henderson, Ky. junior continued to display fine spring form. He and Bill Boller, a senior, were both turning in outstanding performances offensively.

Phelps Improves
Don "Dopey" Phelps, recently reinstated after having been dropped by Bryant last year, spent most of the afternoon working on defense. Apparently the Danville, Ky., senior had his mind on his work, for he was easily the outstanding defensive back on the field. On defense he was in on the kill on at least 30 per cent of the plays.

This week's performance was typical of Phelps' since his return. You can tell from his alertness and his drive that he wants to regain his old varsity starting berth by next fall, and should he continue playing his present caliber of ball, you can mark him down for a starting assignment next September.

John Ignarski, and Bob Elder, both guards, were two of the other sophomores who looked good this week. Ignarski worked with the first team and displayed a talent for keeping himself between the ball-carrier and would-be tacklers.

Elder, a 200 pound-plus giant played on defense opposite center Harry Ulinski, and was giving the veteran pivotman all he could handle.

General Alertness

The thing that has been most apparent so far in practice is that the boys are all fresh and eager to rough it up. With the possibility that as many as a half-dozen starting berths may be in doubt until game time next fall, a general alertness and spirit prevails among the veterans and newcomers alike.

Several of the veterans have shown a great deal of improvement over last year, while most of the others remain about on par.

The small crew of freshmen who enrolled in school in January, has been working out separately from the varsity. The quality of said freshmen is still a mystery, but Bryant earlier stated that this year's freshman crew was one of the best he has ever assembled.

Hibbard Dropped

Jim Hibbard, an all-state fullback for three years at Henry Clay, here in Lexington, was dropped from the squad this past week. The only remaining Lexingtonian on the squad is freshman Billy Adams, an all-state center, who also received his training at Henry Clay.

Kentucky is carrying more seniors on this coming year's team than ever before since Bryant came to Kentucky three seasons ago. A check of the records reveals that 13 Wildcats will be playing their final year of football next season. The list includes eight linemen and five backs.

The backs are Phelps; Lee Truman; Boller, Ralph Genito and Jim Howe. The linemen are Jerry Claiborne, Nick Odell, Dick Holway, Harry Ulinski, Charles Bradshaw, Ray Porter, Lloyd McDermott, and Charley Bentley.

University To Observe Annual Honors Day

The fifth annual observance of Honors Day is scheduled for 10 a.m., May 11, Dean Elvis J. Stahl, chairman of the Honors Day committee, has announced.

Honors Day is observed for recognition of outstanding students.

Cuff Notes

Alex Groza needs 28 points to tomorrow night against Oklahoma A. & M. to crack 700 for the season.

The All-America center added 37 points in two NCAA games this week to increase his season total to 672 in 33 games. He finished the 30-game season with 602 points, and added 13 more in Kentucky's only start in the NIT, for a total of 615 when the NCAA started.

Jim Line, moved into the starting lineup the past two games, is in the runner-up slot for individual honors in the NCAA, with 23 points, 21 against Villanova and 15 against Illinois.

The Cats averaged 80.5 a game in the NCAA, compared to 59.5 for their two opponents. If things go as expected in the Aggie game, both of these figures will probably dip considerably.

Here are the latest statistics on the NCAA games:

	Villanova	Illinois	Total
Groza	30	27	57
Line	21	15	36
Barker	18	8	26
Jones	4	9	13
Beard	3	9	12

Seniors Signed To Play April 9

Kentucky's four senior basketballers and Joe Holland, All Conference and regular Wildcat forward two years ago, will play an exhibition game April 9, in Charleston, W. Va.

The announcement, appearing in a Charleston newspaper last week, came on almost the same day that carried rumor of a Wildcat barn-burning court.

Rumor had it that Groza, Beard, Jones, Barker, and Holland would play exhibitions near Lexington on weekends. This way the seniors could continue their school work and graduate on time.

Babe Kimbrough, Lexington Herald sports editor, would do the booking for the team. Matches with the Harlem Globe Trotters and central Kentucky semi-pro teams were expected.

However no official statement has been made by any of the Wildcats, who are still reeling for the NCAA crown.

Baseball Manager Needed

Of all the eager, husky, energetic, and enthusiastic students who want the backbreaking yet thrill-packed job of varsity baseball equipment manager, one will be selected.

The job is requested to report to Kent Hollingsworth in Alumni Gym at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, where the lucky man will be chosen.

Cats Defeat Villanova In High-Scoring Tilt

By Tom Diskin

NEW YORK — Lefty Jim Line, Galt Barker, Alex Groza were the pacemakers for Kentucky as they defeated Villanova, 85-72, in Madison Square Garden Monday night in the opening round of the NCAA Eastern Division playoffs.

Kentucky, a 14-point favorite, was outdistanced throughout most of the tilt by a sharpshooting Villanova outfit, who hit 28 of its 65 shots for a 43 percent average. UK got off 82 attempts hit 31, for a 37 percentage.

A crowd of 18,051 saw Coach Rupp start Jim Line in place of Dale Barnstable for the first time since early in the season. The Akron, Ohio, leftlander came through in great style as he hit for seven of his first nine attempts.

For the entire game, Line made nine in 13 tries; Alex Groza, who scored 30 points, just one short of the NCAA tournament record, scored 12 buckets in 20 taps; while Barker, who played an outstanding game in all departments, made six in 14 tosses.

Ralph Beard and Wab Jones were definitely off their usual shooting form. The former scored only three points, all on free throws. He played his usual brilliant defensive game. Jones also scored all his points (4) on free throws, and failed to hit any of his field goal attempts. Jones only took three shots for the 30 minutes that he played. The Herlan, Ky., had received four fouls early in the game and sat out much of the second half. He later fouled out, with the score, 70-59.

Groza vs. Arizin

The feature of the game was the duel between Groza and Villanova's 6-3 center, Paul Arizin, for high-scoring honors. Both finished with 30 points. Arizin had 12 goals and six charity tosses; while the black-haired Villanova star collected

1 buckets and eight free throws. Both centers played the second half with four fouls against them. Arizin had three fouls on him with one minute gone; four after only 3 minutes had elapsed. He played a fine second half, despite this fact, scoring 19 of VC's 35 points.

For the entire contest, Arizin, who scored 85 points in one game this season, hit for 11 out of 19.

The Main Liners from Philadelphia started off like a house afire. They jumped to a 5-3 lead, then 3-1, 13-10, and 15-13 before the Cats, led by Line, overtook the stubborn pennsylvanians midway in the first half. UK then assumed a 24-19 margin, then it went to 35-30, and finally 48-37 at halftime.

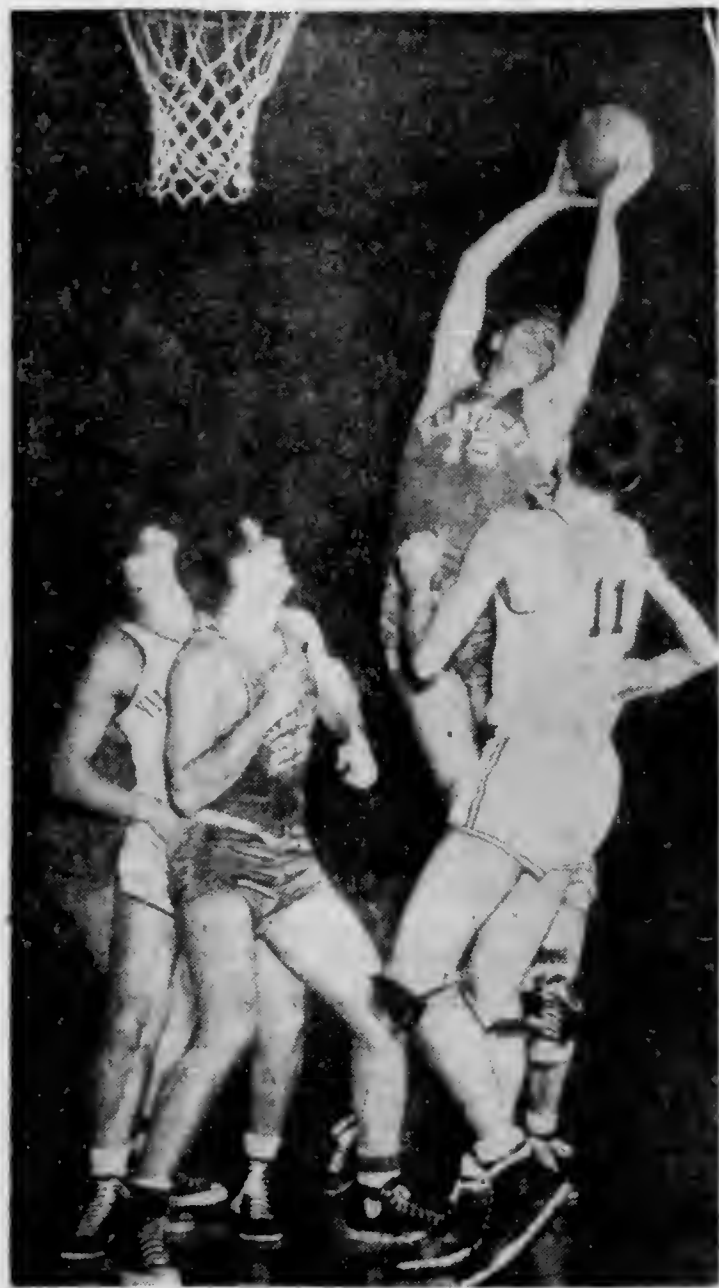

In the second half, the Lexington Lynxes maintained a 10-to-16 point lead over the white-uniformed Villanova Cats and some of the spectators began to leave the Gardens with the score 64-48, UK, and 11 minutes of playing time left.

The Big Blue resumed their record-setting ways once again. In the game with Villanova they broke the previous high scoring mark for one game with 85 points; the 157 points by booth breeds of Wildcats was also a new high; and the 23 fouls UK made established the third new mark. Groza and Arizin missed by one point tying the individual scoring total for one game, which is now held by George Glamack (31).

The scoring summary:

Kentucky (85)	(72) Villanova
Jones (4)	F (14) Ricca
Line (21)	F (6) Raiken
Groza (30)	C (30) Arizin
Beard (3)	G (2) Wolf
Barker (18)	G (7) Hannan

Subs: Hirsch 2, Barnstable 5, and Day 2. Villanova: Del Purgatorio 4, Weglicki 5, Dolan 2, Crossin 2 and Gecker. Officials: McDonald and Gentile.

ALEXANDER THE GREAT TOPS THEM ALL. Alex Groza (15), Kentucky's All-America Center, out-leaps everyone under the basket to pull down a rebound in a crucial moment during the Villanova game Monday night. The Wildcats won 85-72 in the opening game of the Eastern NCAA play-offs in Madison Square Garden. Kentucky's out-paw sharp-shooter, Jim Line (25), looks on. The Villanova player is Center Paul Arizin (11), who tied Groza for high-scoring honors with 30 points.

Eight Kentucky Whizz Cats Leave For Purdue Relays

Eight trackmen are scheduled to leave this morning at 10 a.m. with Coach Don Seaton to participate in the Purdue Relays Saturday. Coach Seaton said two cars will make the trip to West Lafayette, Ind.

Preliminaries for the hurdle events will be held Saturday afternoon while the rest of the events for the Wildcats will be held Saturday evening in the Purdue Fieldhouse.

However, the Wildcats will suffer a terrific blow if Captain Tony Dallas is unable to make the trip. He suffered a leg muscle injury Tuesday at practice and it is doubtful whether or not he will make the trip. Dallas was expected to lead the way in the hurdle events along with Guy Weeks and James Warner.

The medley relay team topped a handicap relay team in practice Tuesday night in one of their final drills for relays. The team of George Kirchner, James Carr, Bob Friedman, and Richard Griffith won handily, but the time was slow, mainly because of bad weather and poor condition of the track.

The handicap team was composed of Martin, Nachand, McCrystal, and Graves.

Coach Seaton added that three of the men expected to carry the burden in the shot put and discus events reported for the team this week. They are Paul Gusten, Frank Smotherman, and Jack Richter. However, none of these three will make the trip to Purdue. Several more candidates also reported for the team, Seaton added.

Wildcats To Defend

be the rubber-game of the series so far.

The Aggies won the nation's defensive crown again this year, limiting 27 opponents to slightly more than 33 points a game. Kentucky is the only major team in the nation listed among the top ten offensively and defensively.

The Aggies played 11 games this year against teams also played by Kentucky. Against these teams Kentucky has a 10-1 record, and A. & M. a 9-2 record.

COMPARATIVE SCORES

81-27	St. Louis 40-37
	Tulsa 69-31
	Tulsa 58-35

Here's how the Aggies earned the right to meet Kentucky:

Paced by Forward Jack Shelton's three baskets in the last two minutes of play, the last with three seconds to go, the Aggies squeezed out a 40-39 verdict over Wyoming in Kansas City last Friday night, to advance to the Western finals. Shelton finished the game with 16 points. Wyoming connected on 48 percent of its shots, compared to less than 30 percent for A. & M.

The following night, they scored one of the most decisive victories in Western play-off history, belting a supposedly strong Oregon State five, 55-30. They mastered the Pacific Coast champs from start to finish.

Bob Harris turned in one of his best performances of the season, controlling rebounds off both boards and connecting for 23 points. Shelton added 13 more.

A. & M. improved greatly over its showing against Wyoming the night before, hitting 47 percent of its field goal attempts, 17 out of 38, and missing only three of 19 free throw attempts.

Kentucky advanced to the NCAA finals by outlasting Villanova, 85-72, and then trouncing Illinois, 76-47.

Big wheel of the Aggie machine is 6-7 pivotman Bob Harris. The senior defensive great is just that, according to Aggie followers—great. He is a rebounding terror under either basket and pounces on loose balls like a cat on a mouse.

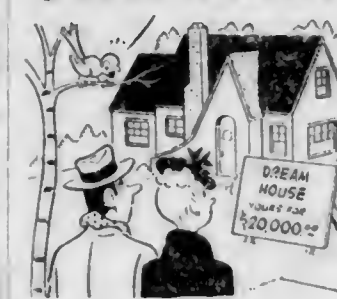

Four times in the last two years Harris has stuck to Ed Macauley like a suntan, which may help explain why the Aggies have registered four consecutive victories over the Bills.

Despite the Aggies' meager offensive average of a game, Harris has a scoring average of better than 10 points a game.

The tall Aggie-team sticks to its slow break consistently. They work the ball around slowly, careful not to throw it away by speedy passing, until someone is open within 10 or 15 feet of the basket. Unless there is a 50-50 chance of connecting, they don't shoot.

What makes the Aggies doubly deadly is the fact that they are tall enough to control rebounds in most of their games. Within a dozen feet of the basket, they are dead shots. They seldom take more than 50 shots a game, and usually average between 35 and 40 percent shooting average.

Cats Rebound To Win Eastern NCAA Meet

Groza, Line, Barker Lead Wildcats In Whipping Villanova And Illinois

By Tom Diskin

New York—The Kentucky Cats turned in their best Madison Square Garden performance of the season last Tuesday night in the NCAA Eastern Division finals as they soundly trounced Illinois, 76-47.

Some 15,126 people saw the Big Blue, an 8-point favorite, turn on the heat and inflict the worst defeat for the Illini of the 1946-49 campaign, clipping the Big Nine champions by a 29-point margin.

Winning this game entitled the Ruppmen to meet the Western Division survivor, the Oklahoma Aggies, at Seattle tomorrow night for the NCAA championship.

Alex Groza turned in another good game for UK, scoring 27 points while holding Wally Osterkorn and Fred Green to five and seven points respectively.

Jim Line continued his outstanding play and finished with 15 points, 10 of which came in the first half.

Ralph Beard and Walt Jones slipped in nine each, while Cliff Barker followed with eight. The latter, who played two fine games in the NCAA meet, held the much publicized Duke Eddleman, Illini guard, to just six points, those being three long fielders in the final semester.

Beard also turned in a nice defensive game, holding the Collier's All-American, Bill Erickson, to just two goals and one free throw.

The Illini scoring was well scattered. Walt Kersulis led with nine; Green had seven; Roy Galewood and Eddleman six each, and Osterkorn and Erickson five each.

The losers jumped to a 2-0 lead as Green hit a one-hander, but UK soon overtook them and led the rest of the way as the count went from 5-3, 18-10, 30-15, and 39-12 at the halfway mark.

In the final half, UK pushed it to 43-25, 44-28, 63-39, and 67-43, with two and one-half minutes remaining.
